1. At the beginning of August 1952 the Tientsin Clothing Factory received orders from the Supply and Service Command of the North China Military Area for 300,000 winter uniforms. These uniforms were to be delivered by the end of September. The Tientsin Clothing Factory is the largest factory under this Command.
2. After receiving this order the factory launched a "Red Flag Competition Drive". Each worker has been required to work an extra 3-hour shift daily.
